A family animated feature film with song & dance numbers

When Pambo, the vainest of all the peacocks, cheats to win the yearly gala dance contest, he's punished in the worst way possible – all his beautiful jewel coloured feathers fall out. As a consequence Pambo loses his gorgeous, but rather superficial girlfriend Michelle and is ostracised by all the other peacocks.

To get his feathers and win his girl back, the now naked bird must journey to a magical pond and leap in before sunset on the following day. Pambo's best buddy, Marvin, goes with him, along with the unglamorous Seely, eager to get the photo and story scoop for her newspaper – The Peacock News. But they all must firstly escape from the pursuing tiger who wants the naked Pambo as a gourmet delicacy.

Along this journey, Pambo will find genuine friendship, true love and strength of purpose. He will realise it is not what he looks like but what he is, that makes him a unique and admired individual.
